

Thunder Jam - Superheroes lesson 5

'With great power comes great musicality'.

Did you notice how powerful the different musical sounds were, and how they helped to tell the story and gave ideas to your imagination?

That is the 'power of bringing musical sounds together'.

1. The children all chose a musical power - violin, rock guitar, 10 trumpet frog power ...

What would your musical power be? Why did you choose that power?

2. Please write three sentences explaining how your superpower would sound and what Powers it would have - maybe rescuing kittens from a tree or saving the universe?

3. Have you listened to the five pieces of music? Please think about the sounds you heard. Can you find six words to describe the music? Can you write three sentences to explain What you think makes each one a 'Superheroes' piece?
