

To Develop our Understanding of Compound Time

lesson 7 – page 1/2

1. Intro recap quiz – what can you remember from last time?

a. Where was 'Sorida' from? Please circle correct answer

- Nigeria
- Zimbabwe
- France

b. What does 'Sorida' mean? Please circle correct answer

- Hello!
- Goodbye!
- Bananas!

c. What is simple time? Please circle correct answer

- A piece of music that uses only one note value
- Musical metre in which each beat can be split into three equal units
- Musical metre in which each beat can be simply halved or quartered

d. What is compound time? Please circle correct answer

- A piece of music that uses only one note value
- Musical metre in which each beat can be split into three equal units
- Musical metre in which each beat can be simply halved or quartered

2. What was the name of our warm-up song? Please circle correct answer

- Not so fast!
- Not so simple!
- Not so steady!

3. What do we call musical metre in which beats can be simply halved or quartered?

Please circle correct answer

- Simple time
- Compound time
- Dinner time

4. Which of these tracks is not in simple time? Please circle correct answer

- Fallin' - Alicia Keys
- I will wait – Mumford and Sons
- Happy – Pharrell Williams

5. Which of these time signatures is not compound time? Please circle correct answer

- 12/8
- 6/8
- 4/4

6. Can you find the main beats in this piece of music? How many main beats are there per bar? What is the time signature?

Please draw a heart above each main beat and write your answer here:

Hint: look at how the notes are written down together

